

Bitter Cold Sweeps Down From Canada

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frigid air, fanned by brisk westerly winds, swept across the Canadian border into the north central region today, dropping temperatures far below zero.

Cold air also covered broad areas from the Pacific Northwest into eastern sections of the country. Temperatures edged toward the zero mark in the Texas Panhandle.

There was more snow atop the blanket of white reported in many parts of the country on Christmas Day. Rain and sleet hit some Southern sections. Driving conditions were hazardous in many parts of the wet belt.

The mercury dropped sharply as the icy air spread through the eastern Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and northern and northwest sections of Illinois.

Temperatures in Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn., dropped 32 degrees in about 12 hours, hitting a low of 20 below zero near midnight, the season's lowest mark. It was colder in International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border, with a reading of -26.

The low mark in Iowa was -25 in Emmetsburg, in the northwest part of state. Other sub-zero readings included 21 in Eau Claire, Wis., 20 in Duluth and 6 in Rockford, Ill. It was below zero in northwest suburbs of Chicago and zero in Chicago.

In Atlanta, Ga., dense fog curtailed air traffic, stranding hundreds of Christmas travelers.

Fog and low clouds were reported in most of the southeast section of the country. Utility poles and lines snapped because of accumulation of ice in some areas.

Arkansas Registers Six Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven persons were killed in traffic accidents in Arkansas on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

A total of 11 were killed in wrecks in the state during the holiday period—from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tuesday.

Claude Cooper, 67, a Blytheville attorney, was fatally injured Tuesday night when his car went out of control and struck a bridge abutment in West Memphis.

Cooper died an hour later in a West Memphis hospital.

He began practicing law in Blytheville in 1917 and owned the Cooper Building in Blytheville and farmland in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. David Drake of Morrilton were killed Tuesday night when their car was struck by an 11-car Missouri Pacific freight train just outside Morrilton. Their son, Jimmy, 20, received severe lacerations, police said.

Cooper died an hour later in a West Memphis hospital.

Officers said they had not determined who the driver of the car was.

Paul Berry, 31, of Black Rock, was killed Christmas day when his pickup truck skidded out of control and hit a bridge abutment on icy U.S. Highway 63 west of Hoxie.

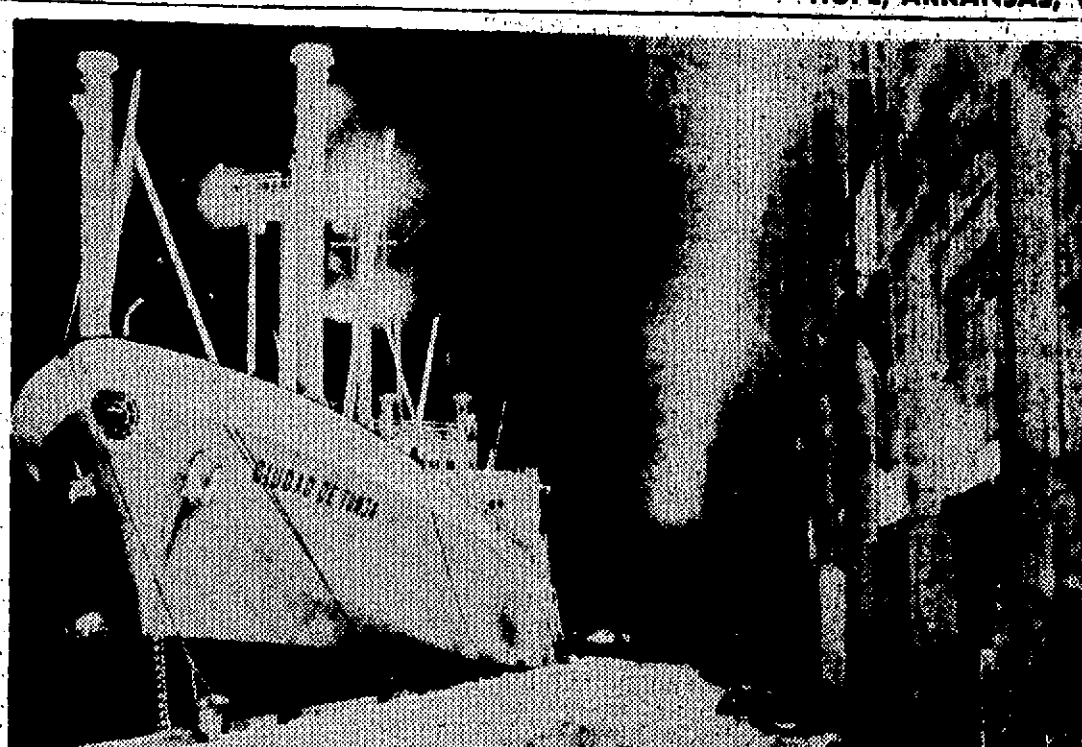

Elmo Atkins, 63, prominent Lake City farmer, died in a head-on collision near Trumann. Police said Atkins was a passenger in a car driven by Mrs. Lawanda Mooney, 34, of Jonesboro. The Mooney car collided with a sedan driven by Beulah Gardner, 34, a Negro of Chicago.

Police said the Gardner woman lost control of her car after it struck the shoulder of U.S. Highway 63 on a curve, then the car skidded across the ice-slick road into the path of the Mooney car.

An airman at Little Rock Air Force Base, Everett Wayne Brown, 21, was killed when the car in which he was riding skidded off an icy highway, plunged down an embankment and overturned. State police said Clyde W. Morton, 19, was the driver of the car. Morton is from Jacksonville, they said.

Cleveland Sherman, five-year-old Malvern Negro, was killed in a similar accident seven miles south of Gurdon Monday. Police said he was a passenger in a car driven by Georgia Ann Sherman, 28, also of Malvern.

Four persons lost their lives in traffic accidents and one was electrocuted prior to Christmas eve, bringing to 11 the total number of Arkansas holiday deaths at the end of the count at midnight Tuesday.

WALKS OFF JOBS — Not a creature is stirring at Pier 82 on the Delaware River in Philadelphia after members of the International Association of Longshoremen ignored President Kennedy's appeal for a 90-day truce to protect the national interest and walked off their jobs following an 80-day cooling off period. Docks are struck from New York to Texas.

FREE — Mrs. Edgardo Butari embraces her son, Edgardo, Jr., as his sister, Astrid, holds tightly to his arm after arrival in Miami from Cuba. Edgardo, 26, the son of a former Cuban secretary of labor, was among the Bay of Pigs prisoners freed by Fidel Castro in exchange for medical supplies and food.

Says Union Violated Labor Act

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trial Examiner Eugene E. Dixon has ruled that Local 916 of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America (IUMSWA) violated the National Labor Relations Act by physically assaulting employees who refused to join in a strike against a Salem, Ark., contractor.

Dixon, who conducted a National Labor Relations Board hearing on the matter Oct. 25 at Ellington, Mo., disclosed his findings today. The charges were filed May 14 by Owen Langston, the contractor.

Dixon said union members attacked a crew of non-union workers employed by Langston as the employees went to work May 9 at a wooded site off Highway 51 near Ellington. The men had been employed to clear a right-of-way for a powerline.

The examiner said some of the union members were armed with pistols and lengths of hose. Others, he said, threw rocks or used their fists. Three of Langston's employees were injured. All left after the union members threatened to burn their truck, Dixon said.

Dixon ruled that the victims of the union's assault be reimbursed for their medical expenses. None was injured seriously.

The union men set up a picket line after Langston refused to recognize their union and indicated he could not meet their demands for a pay increase, Dixon said.

Police said the Gardner woman lost control of her car after it struck the shoulder of U.S. Highway 63 on a curve, then the car skidded across the ice-slick road into the path of the Mooney car.

Asks Japan Not to Export Pipe

TOKYO (AP) — The United States and its NATO allies have asked Japan to stop exporting steel pipes to the Soviet Union for use in Russia's oil industry. Kyodo News Service reported today.

Quoting government sources, Kyodo said the Japanese government was asked to cooperate with a decision by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to stop exporting oil pipes to the Soviet Union.

Responsible government officials declined comment.

The new Russian complaint was an outgrowth of accusations in the Soviet press earlier this month against five U.S. Embassy officials.

Soviet newspapers linked the five with Oleg Penkovsky, 43, a Soviet scientific official who is being held for trial on charges of spying for the United States, and Greville Wynne, a British businessman who was arrested in Hungary in November and now is awaiting trial in Moscow, also for espionage.

The rest of the state got rain. The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said the snow and sleet would not be as extensive as that which fell over the state Monday and Tuesday.

The precipitation was expected to end late today but more was expected Thursday and Friday. A few light snow flurries and a little sleet was expected during these two days but, for most of the state, rain was anticipated.

State Police reported all highways in the state free of snow and ice. Travel was hampered early today by fog and drizzle.

Temperatures struggled to highs in the upper 30s in the southeast Tuesday and managed to climb to the mid 20s in the northern sections of the state. Temperatures were expected to be about the same today.

The Weather Bureau said lower temperatures can be expected Thursday and Friday. It said mercury readings will range 5 to 10 degrees below normal levels. The normal high is 51 and the normal low is 31.

There was hope for better weather for Arkansas as the Weather Bureau said. A high pressure system now located over Oklahoma is bringing clear skies and moderate temperatures to that state. The Weather Bureau said there is an indication that this system would move into Arkansas bringing temporary relief from the cold weather.

Reds Raise New Spying Accusation

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union again today accused the U.S. Embassy in Moscow of espionage and demanded it stop the alleged spying. U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler promptly rejected the charge as unfounded.

Kohler in turn accused the Russians of carrying on an anti-American campaign in the press and on television.

The new Russian complaint was an outgrowth of accusations in the Soviet press earlier this month against five U.S. Embassy officials.

Soviet newspapers linked the five with Oleg Penkovsky, 43, a Soviet scientific official who is being held for trial on charges of spying for the United States, and Greville Wynne, a British businessman who was arrested in Hungary in November and now is awaiting trial in Moscow, also for espionage.

Kennedy Gets Down to Tax Cut Business

By FRANK CORMIER

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy buckles down to business again today—tax cut business.

He turned from the holiday aspect of his Florida stay and called together top economic and financial advisers for a conference on tax policy and the economy.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon was to interrupt his own vacation at nearby Hobe Sound, Fla., to join the meeting at Kennedy's oceanfront headquarters.

Among those summoned from Washington were chairman Walter Heller of the Council of Economic Advisers, Undersecretary of the Treasury Henry Fowler and Assistant Secretary Stanley S. Surrey.

Kennedy's latest word on tax cut prospects came in an address to the Economic Club of New York on Dec. 14. Arguing that the present tax system acts as a brake on economic growth, he urged an early reduction in both individual and corporate tax rates, coupled with some tax reforms and a clampdown on federal spending.

Key questions at today's conference involved the strategy of pushing tax cut legislation through a Congress which has a vocal and influential segment that contends any lowering of taxes at this time would create a dangerously large federal budget deficit.

In this case, strategy goes to the substance of the issue because, as Kennedy made evident in his Dec. 14 address, the administration is willing to tailor its proposals to the mood of Congress.

For example, the President said that tax reforms—once envisioned as a major part of the administration program—could not be advocated solely for "academic reasons." He said any changes in existing provisions for special benefits could be justified only if they would contribute to economic growth.

Kennedy also backtracked on a second count. Where once he promised to seek a tax cut retroactive to next Jan. 1, he mentioned no effective date in his New York speech. This was no oversight.

Against this background, the administration's problem is to fashion a tax program that comes close to meeting its initial goals—and still win favor with Congress.

The new Russian complaint was an outgrowth of accusations in the Soviet press earlier this month against five U.S. Embassy officials.

Soviet newspapers linked the five with Oleg Penkovsky, 43, a Soviet scientific official who is being held for trial on charges of spying for the United States, and Greville Wynne, a British businessman who was arrested in Hungary in November and now is awaiting trial in Moscow, also for espionage.

By ROBERT D. CLARK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One thousand Cubans — relatives of the Bay of Pigs invasion captives released just before Christmas — await a joyful exodus Thursday from the Communist rule island into south Florida.

In another surprising development, hundreds of Russians who had been stationed in Cuba left for home Tuesday night on a Soviet passenger liner.

The Russians — men, women and children — presumably were bound for home aboard the Admiral Najimov, the former German steamship Berlin, which had been berthed in Havana for two weeks.

They boarded the vessel during the day, arriving in long truck and bus convoys. There had been no announcement by Cuban officials of plans to move any large number of Russians off the island.

The Admiral Najimov left from a dock near where an American vessel was being prepared to take on 1,000 relatives of the invasion captives who were ransomed from Fidel Castro.

The steamer African Pilot, which made the ransom run Saturday, is scheduled to arrive about 7 a.m. Thursday at Port Everglades, 25 miles north of Miami. It will land parents, brothers and sisters, wives and children who had stayed in Cuba to be near their imprisoned loved ones.

Last of Deer Season Is at Hand

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The last of Arkansas' three gun deer hunting periods opens Thursday and will continue through Monday.

Highlighting the event will be the opening of 26 north Arkansas counties to hunting of both doe and bucks.

State and federal game refuges, such as the White River National Wildlife Refuge, will not be open during the period.

The St. Francis National Forest in Lee and Phillips counties, however, will be open to the hunting of bucks only, without dogs.

Counties open to both doe and buck hunting are Baxter, Benton, Boone, Carroll, Cleburne, Crawford, Franklin, Fulton, Independence, Jackson, Madison, Marion, Newton and Randolph.

Scott, Seaway, Sebastian, Sharp, Stone, Van Buren, Washington, White and Woodruff.

Izard County, originally scheduled to be open to hunting of both doe and buck, will be open to the hunting of bucks only.

National banks began business at Little Rock and Fort Smith in 1865.

Reds Oust Agriculture Minister

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets announced today the dismissal of agricultural expert Nikolai G. Ignatyev as one of the Soviet Union's 11 deputy premiers. A shakeup in the Communist party of the Kazakhstan virgin lands also was announced.

The official Soviet news agency Tass reported the departure of Ignatyev, which represented further downgrading of the 61-year-old official. He was removed from the Communist party's ruling periodism in 1961.

The government newspaper Izvestia announced firing of two party functionaries in Kazakhstan—First Secretary Dinmukhamed A. Kunayev and Second Secretary N. N. Radionov. Kunayev was criticized severely for the poor harvest this year in the vast wheat-growing region.

Izvestia said the serious shortcomings and mistakes of the party leaders were criticized. And it said party and government organs in the republic had "weakly directed industry, construction and especially agriculture."

MAN ON THE SKEWBALD MARE

By NELSON C. NYE XVII

Bunny Pike reappeared moments later tugging a big roan horse whose reins she thrust hurriedly into Rafe's hands. "You take Roanie—he's freshest. I'll ride with your father."

Brownwater, dragging open the portal with Luce's nervous help, shouted: "Never mind us—they're going to take after you, Rafe. Look for us where you lost the skewbald. Git goin'!"

Rafe, still reluctant, and showing it, climbed aboard Bunny's horse, half ready to argue this further. While his weight was yet on the stirrup, the big puncher, yelling like a wildcat, fetched the blue roan a clip with his hat. The horse took off like a bat out of Carlsbad; the swearing Rafe becoming too busy trying to stay with him to have any breath or time left for gab.

Off to his left as he sailed through the gate a bedlam of furious shouts went up but he hadn't any attention he could spare them, either.

When he got his seat firmly in the saddle and had found his other stirrup he sneaked a quick look and gave the roan back his head. There were six or eight of Spangler's men pouring in the control the shopping center saw four men enter the rear of the J. C. Penney store. The officers radioed for help and police surrounded the building.

"We caught them red-handed," Burgess said. "They had cut a big hole out of the side of the safe with acetylene torches."

The four men, held without bond on attempted burglary charges, were booked as Joe C. Cash, 23, an escapee from jail at Franklin, Tenn.; Jackie W. Phillips, 21, College Park, Ga.; Billy Lewallen, 20, Jonesboro, Ga., and Billy Joe Sorrells 18, of De Kalb County Ga.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A Christmas Day attempt to rob a department store safe at a suburban shopping center resulted in the arrest of four men who were caught in the act, police said today.

Detective R. T. Burgess said that two officers assigned to pa-steel and laying on the leather in a frantic attempt to cut him off before he could pass that tangle of pens.

But all the shouting and shooting only increased the roan's fright. Pinning back his ears he really stretched out and his few hours of rest began to pay off. He tore past the pens in a wild burst of speed. Slowly but surely he began pulling away, opening up his lead a little more with every stride.

The pursuers quit firing but they kept on coming, falling farther behind but plainly determined not to quit until they had it. Duke had never given a hoot about horseflesh.

Rafe guessed Spangler was riled enough to chew carpet tacks. They would kill him, all right, if they ever glommed onto him.

It was obvious it would not be today. Some of Spangler's crew had already pulled up and the most of the others were strung out half a mile. Only Spangler and Duke, on the best horses, were still in the race.

He grew sober in a hurry when the rhythm of the roan's hard run commenced to falter. Rafe switched him into a gallop, then a lope. When the ride continued rough he dropped into a jog. The reaching lunge of his breath was like a bellows. Greatly concerned—even worried, now, Rafe peered behind and, a mile away, saw the pair still after him, indomitable as death.

He was afraid for his lead to ease the horse any further. If they again managed to get within saddle gun range they would probably drop off, do their level best to nail him. He kept the roan going, talking to him, pleading with him, coaxing, promising oats and turnip greens, anything and everything that came into his head. The lather, on chest and flanks, showed like soap, and Rafe could no longer doubt the horse was limping.

With bitterness he pulled up and jumped down, reaching for the scabbarded rifle. Then he stared, stared again. The day had considerably advanced, the sun being presently almost overhead in the full powers of its strength. But astonishingly, and in spite of this brilliance, he could find no sign of Spangler or Duke. If they hadn't given up they had at least dropped out of sight.

Rafe picked up the roan's feet. When he got to the off front hoof he found the trouble. A sharp three-cornered stone had tightly wedged in the frog. While it wasn't by any means a case for shooting, it was a cinch the roan could carry him no farther. Not without Rafe irreparably ruining him.

Rafe dug out the stone. The animal would be of no use for several days. Rafe scowled about, trying to find some landmark that would fix his location. This was all new country to him. Unknown. Haired over with yellow last year's grass it gently rolled toward a blue blur of hills back over his left shoulder which might be the ones that hid his father's headquarters. He wondered where the others were now.

Rafe's scowl deepened. Since he wasn't able to see any cattle it seemed a likely assumption he was probably still on Gourd and Vine ranch. And if those hills hid the ranch,—he couldn't see any others close enough to matter —the rendezvous where he'd lost Bathsheba must be someplace west. How far he had no notion. But a powerful long way for a man to go in high-heeled boots.

He picked up the reins, clucked to the roan and started walking.

The horse didn't balk but after an hour of increasing heat Rafe stopped to pull off the saddle and blanket. Then with handfuls of grass he rubbed the roan down. Retrieving the rifle, he looked a long time at the saddle before abandoning it. He caught up the canteen, filled his hat with the tepid water and let the horse drink. Taking up the reins once more, he again moved west.

50 YEARS HELPING BUILD ARKANSAS

NOW IT COSTS not MORE, but LESS to enjoy the wonderful world of Electric Living!

Through the new lower electric rates recently announced by our Company, every customer we serve will be able to make wider use of electricity with the realization that now — more than ever — it's the biggest bargain in the family budget!

This is not an idle statement. Nor is it an accident, for in our 50 years of serving you our goal has been to give you the very best electric service at the very lowest price. In 1963 we will come closer to that goal than at any time in the past half-century! Maybe you'd like to see what the figures show:

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENED IN THESE 50 YEARS
1913		1963
17.14	The Company's average revenue per kilowatthour, residential customers	2.94
$30.20	The Company's average revenue for 250 kwh monthly, residential use	$7.92

Better management, newer ideas and greater economies in the production and delivery of electricity are all part of the reason for the big differences, but they are really a small part. The BIG reason AP&L electricity costs so much less today lies in your far greater use of it. Even at our new low rates, families who enjoy TOTAL electric living will be the ones enjoying the biggest values! But no matter how you use it, for the services performed and the hard jobs done, electric service IS the biggest bargain in your budget!

Nancy Langton Entertained
The Centersville 4-H Club

Nancy Langton entertained the Centersville 4-H Club with a Christmas party in her home December 21, 1962. Carolyn Beck presided over the Christmas program. The devotional was given by Brenda Underwood followed by a prayer by Miss Murline Faught. Linda Day gave a Christmas story. Carolyn Beck gave a Christmas Poem. Nancy Langton lead the group in singing Christmas Carol. The group played games and exchanged gifts. Cocoa and cupcakes were served to 13 members and 11 guests.

Bride-Elect Honored
At A Coffee

Saturday morning, December 22 Miss Sue Moore, bride-elect of Kenneth Gilliam, was entertained with a coffee at the Leonard Ellis home. Hostesses were Misses Mary Margaret Daniels of Ft. Worth, Tex., and Joyce Riley.

For the morning party Miss Moore was attired in a fuchsia-colored dress and pinned a Christmas corsage at her shoulder. Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. greeted the guests at the door. They were invited into the home where Yuletide decorations were prominent at many vantage points.

In the dining room, the serving table was overlaid with a pale green cloth trimmed with red velvet ribbon. It was centered with an arrangement of red carnations, red berries, and holly.

Mrs. C. Cook poured the coffee. Mrs. Donald Moore and Mrs. Frank Russell assisted in serving fruit and dainty tidbits to about 25 guests. Those from out of town were Mrs. Lloyd Thrash, Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Melvin Thrash and Mrs. James Aubrey Lewis, Little Rock; and Mrs. Van Moore, Ft. Smith.

A gift of chime in her chosen pattern was presented to the honoree.

Friday Bridge Club

After luncheon at a local restaurant, a Friday Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. C. P. Tolleson December 21. The two tables of players were all club members, and they exchanged gifts around the pretty Christmas tree at the Tolleson home.

When bridge was played, the high scorers were Mrs. Tom Kinser and Mrs. R. E. Cooper. Kind drinks and candy were served.

during the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Holder was a club guest for the luncheon.

9 Injured in Train Collision

NEW YORK (AP)—A string of empty passenger cars rolled down an incline and collided head-on with a Long Island Rail Road passenger train carrying some 40 Christmas Day commuters. Seven of them plus two trainmen were injured, police said.

The accident occurred at the Jamaica station in Queens as the occupied train was pulling out of the station.

Freed After 'Confession' to Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Army sergeant released by Communist guerrillas Christmas Eve has told military authorities he was forced to sign several documents damaging to the United States and South Viet Nam during his captivity.

An Army spokesman said Sgt. Roque S. Mataguly of Richmond, Calif., who was in Communist captivity for five months, has told interrogators he had signed four statements in November, while suffering from a severe attack of malaria.

He said he was subjected to four months of continuous propaganda lectures prior to the signing of the documents, the Army spokesman reported.

The spokesman quoted Mataguly as saying: "My illness, scarce medical attention and constant verbal harassment culminated in signing the documents so my captors would leave me alone."

Mataguly, 30, said the documents bitterly attacked the pro-West government of President Ngo Dinh Diem and the American policy of supporting South Viet Nam's government. Mataguly said he personally does not believe any of the statements he signed.

The documents were the "usual Communist propaganda line," he said, requiring only his signature. He later had to read them out to his Communist captors and believed they were recorded.

Mataguly said he refused to sign any further documents after he had recovered from malaria.

Pickets Back on Struck Waterfront

NEW YORK (AP)—Pickets returned to Hudson River piers today after a holiday lull in the strike by the International Longshoremen's Association that has hit parts from Maine to Texas.

The union's strike headquarters said picket boats would be sent out only if some idle vessel tries to sail. Incoming vessels were permitted to dock without interference.

If the strike by some 60,000 longshoremen lasts long enough—it's now in its fourth day—three million pounds of potatoes aboard a docked Liberian freighter will start to sprout, said a spokesman for the ship's agent.

The perishable cargo was in the holds of the freighter Glenview, anchored in the Charleston, S.C., harbor.

"The (South Carolina farmers are anxious to get delivery on the potatoes," the spokesman said, "but the union refused our plea."

The Glenview wasn't the only ship affected by the walkout. Scores of vessels lay idle in ports from Searsport, Maine, to Brownsville, Tex.

The longshoremen claimed 100 per cent effectiveness in their sited Sunday with the Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Fuller, Jr. in Junction City. Mrs. Tommy Brasher of Fayetteville was also there, accompanied the Fullers back to Hope, and all were joined by Mr. Brasher on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ligon of Dallas, Tex., arrived Saturday for Christmas with Mrs. Sid Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cornell and daughter of Midland, Tex., are here for the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Cox, Dallas, Tex., are the Christmas holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Young.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. McRae Andrews were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cobb and Clay of Houston, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gregg and Darla of Dallas, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. "Son" Jones of Dallas, Tex., spent the holidays here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Wren of Little Rock were the weekend guests of the Graydon Anthonys and attended the 50th Wedding Anniversary observance of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wren in Prescott Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Williams and family of Little Rock were here Christmas with Mrs. Glen Williams and Misses Marie and Nannie Purkins.

No Peace In Their Home Christmas

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I am a housekeeper, electrician, mechanic, upholsterer and mother with no help from the man who caused me to be a Jack of all trades for 20 years—my husband.

Let him try out the other woman as he has me: 365 days of the year in slave labor. Let him slap her as he does me. The children and I are brave enough to let him go if he is big and brave enough to ask for that freedom.

The other woman spent last summer in my home while I and the kids were visiting friends. My husband gives me nothing and I mean nothing. I have a chance at a job which will support me and the children. Should I take it? —Upset Bert.

Dear Upset: Yes—take the job and let a cooling-off period elapse before you make a final decision. Search your own mind and heart. Have you lived up to your obligations as a wife? Why wasn't your husband along when you visited friends last summer? Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Ideal Husband."

Dear Helen: I'm a 16-year-old boy who feels like boiling at parties can't manage his feet on or off the dance floor and is about as talkative as a clam. As a result I get fewer and fewer bids to parties after basketball games. To make it even worse, the girls I take to the game would love to go. Is there any cure for this painful self-consciousness or must I suffer in silence the rest of my life? —Nervous Teenager.

Dear Nervous: Join the school debating society. Take a course in ballroom dancing. Become a cub scout leader. Make yourself go where people are. Force yourself to talk to them on a subject which interests you. The more you learn about that subject the better.

It could be a hobby such as photography or zoology or some sport in which you could take active part like ice-skating or hockey. The more enthusiastic you are the less likely you are to be self-conscious. Practice makes perfect.

Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Are You

Korea Dedication
SEOUL, Korea (AP)—South Korea's military government dedicated today a giant $5-million fund center named Walker Hill in honor of the late U.S. Lt. Gen. Willard H. Walker.

The government hopes the entertainment center will attract U.S. dollars that American troops spend on furlough in Japan. But U.S. commanders have warned the 157-acre area will be put off limits if prostitution and crooked gambling become features.

strike, which is supported by the 50,000-member National Maritime Union.

The key issue in the dispute is the ship owners' demand that longshoremen work gangs be cut from 20 to 17 men. The I.L.A. said it did not want to negotiate its men out of business in the name of automation.

Pedestrian Takes Appeal From Jury

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Clarence Ransom of Bradford has appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court from a Jackson Circuit Court jury refusing him damages suffered when he was struck by a car near Tuckerman on Sept. 26, 1961.

Ransom contended he was totally disabled by the accident which involved a car driven by Fred F. Weishan of University City, Mo. The jury held that Ransom and not Weishan was negligent.

Eight German Refugees Crash Barrier

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP)—Eight East German refugees crashed through three barriers into West Berlin before dawn today while the bullets of border guards rattled off their armor-plated bus.

Eight bullets hit the bus but only one man was injured, by flying glass when the windshield smashed.

The escapees were the owner of the bus, his driver, their wives and their four children. The children included three girls, 1, 3 and 13 years old and a boy of 10.

Police said the bus, of Soviet manufacture, belonged to one of the few private contractors the Communist regime still permitted to operate.

The group drove 120 miles to Berlin from their homes at Neugersdorf, near the Oder-Neisse border between East Germany and Poland.

They had fitted metal plates inside the bus to protect themselves from the bullets they were certain the border guards would fire at them.

The bus swung around Berlin to come into the city on the autobahn from the west.

While the women and children lay on the floor, the contractor and the driver drove audaciously up to the control point at Babelsberg where vehicles heading for West Berlin are checked.

It was 5:30 a.m. and still dark. Ignoring signals to halt, the driver drove the bus at top speed toward the steel and concrete barricades which stretch across the four-lane highway leaving only one lane for traffic.

Border guards fired tommy guns at the bus as it sped by. The heavy vehicle crashed through three metal barriers.

There still was about 1 1/2 miles of highway to go to the West Berlin city limits but the autobahn curves at this point, giving cover from the guards' fire.

A few minutes later the bus swept triumphantly past the Western Allied checkpoint at Dreilinden and into the sanctuary of West Berlin.

Bad Weather Grounds JFK Conference

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy got an unscheduled holiday today when bad weather in Washington delayed a flight bringing top officials here for conferences.

Kennedy had planned a mid-morning work session with Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and others, to work toward final decisions on the administration plan to seek a 1963 tax cut.

The meeting was put off because fog in the snow-blanketed Washington area held up the departure of a jet transport assigned to bring more than half a dozen officials here for the conference.

Dillon was ready to interrupt his own vacation at nearby Hobe Sound, Fla., to take part in the talks on taxes and the economy.

Rail Shipping Curtailed by Dock Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rail shipments of coal, grain, and other bulk products into Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports was halted today because of the longshoremen's strike.

The Association of American Railroads ordered the embargo to keep cargo from piling up and freight cars being stranded.

The embargo will affect coal mining areas chiefly but could also curtail movement of grain and petroleum. Only bulk cargoes for which there are storage facilities in the port areas will continue to be carried during the strike, which is now in its fourth day.

One phase of the campaign, to save the show centered, logically enough, in Marietta, Ohio, the college town Tewksbury scouted during a nation-wide bus tour last season and decided was the ideal spot to use for the show's exterior shots.

Two young performers in the shown Ted Bessell and Randy Boone, last Tuesday headed a group of Marietta College students in a demonstration before a nearby television station.

From all reports, "It's a Man's World," subtle, off-beat and told from a young person's viewpoint, has been a smash hit with the younger crowd—those in their late teens and early twenties.

None of this special acceptance by young people, unfortunately, can do much to save the show. David Brinkley, NBC's special-in-the-wire remark, may find himself all tangled in whimsy on Jan. 28. His weekly "Journal" is sub-titled "Our Man in Monaco, Andorra, San Marino, Lichtenstein and Smorn." DARDANELLE Band in a Quandary

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP) — Members of the 48-piece band at Dardanelle and boosters of the organization are in a quandary.

They have been invited to march in two Mardi Gras parades Feb. 22-23 in New Orleans and have the distinction of being the only Arkansas unit asked to do so.

But they would have to pay their own transportation. This, parent-financiers figure, would cost about $3,500. The band has about $500 in the kitty.

This, the Band Boosters Club has raised through various efforts, washing cars, cleaning yards, sales of bumper stickers, etc.

The club just paid out $5,500 for new uniforms.

Launches a Drive to Save Series

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Peter Tewksbury, creator of NBC's "It's a Man's World" cancelled in February because of low ratings, has launched his campaign to save the series.

One phase of the campaign, to save the show centered, logically enough, in Marietta, Ohio, the college town Tewksbury scouted during a nation-wide bus tour last season and decided was the ideal spot to use for the show's exterior shots.

Criticism of Prosecutor by Hoffa

DETROIT (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa has criticized severely the federal judge and prosecutor in his Nashville trial which ended in a hung jury Sunday.

Hoffa was especially critical of the decision of Judge William Miller to present to a federal grand jury in January evidence of alleged jury tampering during the 42-day trial. He also had verbal fire for Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

His remarks came in a taped interview with television newsman Ven Marshall of WWJ-TV, Detroit. The interview was taped Monday and broadcast that night and again Tuesday.

Hoffa was on trial on a charge of violating the Taft-Hartley Act by accepting, with the late Owen Brennan, a Teamsters vice president, more than a million dollars from a Michigan trucking firm, Commercial Carriers, Inc.

The jury became deadlocked Sunday after 17 hours of deliberations.

Asked for his views on Judge Miller's conduct of the trial, Hoffa replied:

"My reaction is that we had ready and was set to file an affidavit of prejudice, not only during the trial but before the trial."

Of prosecutor James Neal, Hoffa said:

"He is one of the most vicious prosecutors who ever handled a criminal case for the Justice Department. Half truths, innuendos and every sort of underhanded tricks were used by him in this trial."

He charged Atty. Gen. Kennedy was trying to move Hoffa's next federal court appearance, scheduled for Miami Jan. 4, out of the jurisdiction of the Tampa federal court. "Kennedy viciously stated some time ago that the case belonged in the Tampa court. Now he is trying to move it to Miami."

Asked about rumors of jury tampering, Hoffa said:

"It is the oldest trick in the world that when you displace a juror you think understands the situation, you discredit that juror or someone close to him."

"It is a disgrace, in my opinion, for anyone to make a statement that this jury was tampered with because if they had such a suspicion they should not have waited a month after their suspicion to remove this person, and not during the trial, but at the time they got their information."

At Nashville, the trial judge said: "No comment. The record speaks for itself."

Judge Miller said "close labor union associates" of Hoffa were involved.

Funeral Today for Character Actor

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Funeral services will be conducted Thursday for character actor Luis Albern, whose stage and screen career covered a half century.

Albern, 75, died Sunday. A native of Spain, he appeared on Broadway in "A Young Man's Fancy" and "Strictly Dishonorable." His last movie was "A Bell for Adano," in which he played the mayor.

600 Refugees Die

ORAN, Algeria (AP) — Six hundred persons in a refugee camp near Oran fell ill Tuesday, apparently from food poisoning. An inquiry was opened to find the cause of the sickness. The refugees are Algerians made homeless by the independence war.

Cincinnati's Streak Goes to 26 Games

Und College Bkb Poll
By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's powerful basketball team, proud possessor of a 26-game winning streak, was the choice of The Associated Press panel today as the nation's top college basketball team for the fourth straight week.

The Bearcats, who whipped Dayton and Davidson, surprise conquerors of highly rated Duke, to extend their unbeaten string to eight last week, were the first choice of all 45 sports writers and sportscasters comprising The AP panel. It marked the first time that the Bearcats were made a unanimous choice.

Except for Cincinnati, not a single team retained its place in last week's top ten list.

Unbeaten Ohio State (6-0) and Loyola of Chicago (7-0) each moved up a peg, to second and third respectively. The Buckeyes, who whipped Detroit 101-66 in their only game last week, narrowly edged out the Ramblers for runner-up spot, 376 points to 368. Loyola whipped Western Michigan and Seattle last week, but was held to 93 points by the Chieftans, marking the first time in seven games that the Ramblers failed to top the 100 mark.

Illinois, which extended its unbeaten string to five with a 93-90 triumph over Oklahoma, vaulted from eighth to fourth as Colorado, West Virginia and Seattle all dropped out of the top ten and were replaced by Arizona State, Southern California and Stanford who made the elite list for the first time this season.

Arizona State, which whipped Colorado and Minnesota on successive nights to boost its record to 7-1, jumped into sixth place, behind Kentucky. The Wildcats (5-2) added two victories, beating Iowa and West Virginia, the latter for the Kentucky Invitational championship, 79-75 last Saturday.

Southern California zoomed into seventh place on the strength of a pair of weekend victories over Nebraska which boosted the Trojans' record to 9-0. Duke, beaten by Miami as well as Davidson, fell from second all the way to eighth place, barely beating out Stanford and Mississippi State. The Blue Devils received 92 points to 91 for Stanford and 90 for Mississippi State.

Christmas Lived Up to Tradition

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christmas 1962 lived up to the seasonal traditions of good will, good cheer, merry making, Christian religious observance and peace. There was a minimum of international discord to disturb the hush in what the world calls the cold war.

Moscow radio broadcast best wishes to the United States and urged good will between the two nations; then the Soviets set off another in their series of nuclear tests. The blast was the 24th of the current test series recorded by Sweden's seismological observatory at Uppsala.

Among the happiest celebrations anywhere were those of the 1,113 Cuban invasion captives delivered from Fidel Castro's prisons earlier in the week. They had the additional joyous word that 1,000 members of their families would be allowed to leave Cuba tonight and join them in the United States.

There was much over which the world could shudder and shiver—the continued jungle war in Viet Nam, the conflict between monarchists and republicans in the deserts of Yemen, the perennial prospect of trouble in the Congo, the wall in Berlin.

But the undeclared India-China border war remained quiet, and in most nations political leaders in Christmas greetings to their people spoke of peace with more assurance.

The message of Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker was an example: "Despite sorrow and hope unfulfilled—the message of the manger still comes to us across centuries to sustain our faith—the message of good will for all men and brotherhood for all creeds and races."

After the weeks of the Cuban crisis, Pope John XIII in his Christmas message described the year as one of "fear and trembling" but declared wisdom and prudence had avoided a war. He said this was a "sign for the year that is coming."

Churches in many lands were crowded as Christians paid homage to the Christ child and gave thanks for another year of what passes for peace in the nuclear age. In the Holy Land pilgrims jammed the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem.

Griffing Big Gun for the Rebels

By TOM DYGDARD

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—True enough, quarterback Glynn Griffing is the big gun of Mississippi's football attack.

But when the Rebels tangle with Arkansas in the nationally televised Sugar Bowl game here New Year's Day, you might do well to keep your eye on the second-string quarterback, Jim Weatherly.

If Ole Miss tradition holds true, Weatherly, a sophomore, isolated for big things next year—the signal-calling job on a major football power, perhaps even All-America contention.

The benefit of having a top-caliber quarterback—with a top-caliber stand-in waiting hungrily on the bench—shows through in the recent years of success for Coach Johnny Vaught.

Last year, for example, Griffing was the hungry stand-in, working behind Doug Elmore, pushing Elmore for the top job, preparing himself to fill the first-team shoes.

The year before, Elmore worked under Jake Gibbs, an All-America, and the year before that, Gibbs played behind Bobby Franklin.

Because Griffing is a senior and Weatherly is a sophomore, Griffing stands a good chance of being the first Mississippi quarterback to hold forth for two years since Bobby Franklin did it in 1958 and 1959.

And Weatherly shows all the signs of being capable.

After missing the first two games because of a leg bruise, he came on fast behind Griffing, finishing the season with 230 yards gained rushing on 35 carries—a 6.6-yard average—and 180 yards passing. He completed 15 of 25 passes, three of them for touchdowns.

Sherman Named Coach of Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Coach Allie Sherman of the New York Giants—who never made the grade as a first-string pro player—was named professional Coach of the Year today by the Washington Touchdown Club.

Sherman, 39, whose Eastern Division champions vie for the National Football League crown Sunday against the Green Bay Packers, will be honored by the club at its annual awards dinner, Jan. 12.

In his two years as Giant coach—years in which his charges have captured two Eastern Division championships—Sherman has compiled a 22-5 won-lost record, with one tie game. The Giants lost the NFL title game to Green Bay last year. This year, the New Yorkers have rolled up a 12-2 mark.

The Associated Press named Sherman its pro coach of the year in 1961. He succeeded Jim Lee Howell as Giants coach in 1960.

MacArthur Will Seek Settlement

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the middle man in a dispute between the Amateur Athletic Association and the National Collegiate Athletic Association 34 years ago, has stepped in to try and make the current controversy die and fade away.

The five-star general earlier this week accepted President Kennedy's request to attempt to referee the feud over certification of U.S. athletes for the 1964 Olympic Games.

It was understood, however, that only the NCAA was willing to accept arbitration. The AAU, which is being challenged by the NCAA for authority to certify American athletes for the 1964 summer Olympics in Tokyo, must poll its 32-man executive committee before agreeing to the talks.

MacArthur, 8, served as president of the 1928 American Olympic Committee at a time when the NCAA was emerging as a factor in U.S. amateur sports.

Rose Teams Keep Out Outsiders

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Wisconsin and Southern California moved behind guarded practice field gates today as Rose Bowl fever surged for the first post season meeting of the nation's top two football powers.

The Badgers and Trojans entered the stretch run of drills for their meeting in the 49th Rose Bowl game New Year's Day while followers argued the merits of their favorite.

West Coast fans, who watched Southern Cal roll up 10 straight victories and earn the No. 1 rating among the country's collegiate teams, are virtually united in the belief that the Trojans are unbeatable. Some appear almost sorry for the visiting Badgers.

Midwest fans solidly back the Badgers, the champions of the rugged Big Ten and ranked just behind Southern Cal in the final national poll of The Associated Press. Wisconsin had an 8-1 record, losing only to Ohio State.

Liston Told to Give a Rematch

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—An official of the World Boxing Association, disclosing terms of a contract calling for heavyweight champion Sonny Liston to give the man he dethroned—Floyd Patterson—a rematch, says any state or nation allowing such a bout should be suspended by the organization.

Emile Bruneau, chairman of the WBA's world championship committee, told newsmen the contract calls for Liston to give Patterson a rematch or surrender a percentage of his purse in future fights until he has paid the ex-champion $1 million.

In Tacoma, Wash., Dr. Charles P. Larson, president of the WBA—successor to the National Boxing Association—said Bruneau "pretty well expressed the opinion of all of us."

"I'm not going to make any further comment at this time," Larson said Monday, "except to say that we simply feel that a rematch would be the worst thing possible for boxing at the moment."

Liston won the heavyweight

Porkers Travel to Biloxi for Bowl Training

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks began reassembling today in preparation for their New Year's Day Sugar Bowl date with Ole Miss in New Orleans.

The Porkers were to leave Fayetteville by plane early today, stop in Little Rock to pick up more team members, then be in Biloxi, Miss., before noon.

They will set up camp there at a motel and work out at a Biloxi high school field.

Coach Frank Broyles said, "We'll go to work as soon as we get to Biloxi and we'll hold two-day workouts as long as necessary. We've got some things to get done and we'll work until we learn them."

Adverse weather held the Hogs inside during most of their pre-holiday work period. Broyles was able to send his squad through only two drills in pads.

While prospects looked brighter for the Porkers on the Gulf coast, Coach Johnny Vaught, at Oxford, Miss., was frowning at reports of snow or freezing drizzle today.

The Rebels went back to work today for the first time since Dec. 20 with film and blackboard sessions scheduled for the morning drills and work on the field in the afternoon.

Vaught said because of the danger Arkansas presents to his unbeaten team, "not only a top effort, a top condition is an absolute must as far as we are concerned. The rain and snow predicted for this area could be a real handicap."

But Vaught, unlike Broyles, had the advantage of some good drills during the pre-holiday work period. He said the last few days of workouts before the Christmas layoff were the best he had seen.

"But Arkansas is a tremendous football team—perhaps the best of all the bowl teams we have faced," he said. Good practice into Jan. 1 is essential if we are to meet the Razorbacks on equal terms.

"This year we have not faced a team as fast or as dangerous as Arkansas. Certainly not a team which can do as many things well on offense."

The two squads have never met in a bowl match, but Ole Miss holds a one-game edge (13-12) in a regular season series dating back to 1908. Ole Miss won the last four.

Chest Clinics Are Planned

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Health Department announced Saturday that chest clinics to detect tuberculosis would be held next year in 26 Arkansas cities.

Dr. Paul W. Reagan, director of the Division of TB Control, said the plan includes clinics at Batesville, Benton, Blytheville, Camden, Conway, El Dorado, Forrest City, Hot Springs, Harrisburg, Helena, Hamburg.

Clinics also will be held at Arkadelphia, Pine Bluff, Little Rock, Mountain Home, North Little Rock, Monticello, Newport, Paragould, Walnut Ridge, Pocatonton, Wynne, Malvern, Marianna, West Memphis and Marion. At the same time the department said it had developed a four-point program to fight TB. It includes rejection of all existing TB statistics as unreliable, sending mobile X-ray units to communities which rarely see them, more coordination between workers in the fight against TB, and expansion of the chest X-ray program in cooperation with private doctors.
